

CROP Systems picked up a certificate of merit innovation award at the LAMMA Show in January for its SmartStor controller. The device, which allows growers to communicate with and control their storage equipment by smartphone, tablet or laptop, has been described as 'a potato store in your pocket'.